Quarterly Performance Summary
June 30, 2025

Capital Markets Overview

U.S. Equity Market

Stocks posted strong returns in the second quarter with domestic equities slightly underperforming their international peers. As concerns around tariffs receded, the S&P 500 Index gained 10.9%; during the same period, the Russell 2000 rose 8.5%. Over the quarter, growth stocks dramatically outperformed value, particularly in large cap where the Russell 1000 Growth returned 17.8% versus the Russell 1000 Value's 3.8%.

International Equity Markets

Overall, emerging markets posted a strong performance with the MSCI EM gaining 12.0% in the second quarter, bolstered by improving trade dynamics, strong performance in South Korea and Taiwan, and renewed appetite for risk. The MSCI EAFE returned 11.8%, buoyed by a weaker dollar, fiscal stimulus in Europe and rate cuts from the European Central Bank.

Fixed Income Markets

In fixed income, tariffs took center stage, spurring volatility as investors grappled with the trade policies of the new administration and the potential impact on markets and economies. As expected, the Federal Reserve held rates steady, while emphasizing its data-dependent approach to monetary policy and need for greater clarity around the impact on growth and inflation from tariffs before adjusting monetary policy. Softening rhetoric and extension of timelines around tariffs allowed for a gradual recovery in spreads in late April and May on the heels of weakness in early April. The rally in spreads continued into June, fueled by strong investor demand for credit and limited new issuance. The Bloomberg Aggregate Bond Index gained 1.2% in the second quarter; high-yield debt posted modest gains, with the ICE BofA BB-B US High Yield Index gaining 3.5% in the second quarter.
