Quarterly Performance Summary

September 30, 2019

Capital Markets Overview

U.S. Equity Market

US equities were a mixed bag in the third quarter with the S&P 500 Index gaining 1.7% and the small-cap Russell 2000 Index losing 2.4%. There was a sharp reversal of growth and value strategies across the capital spectrum in the final month of the quarter with value outperforming growth by 3.6% and 5.9% across large and small cap, respectively. The reversal fueled losses in technology and healthcare of 1.5% and 2.5%, respectively, and potentially sets the stage for outperformance in financial services, utilities and consumer staples.

International Equity Markets

International stocks were increasingly volatile for the three months ended September 30 amid concerns around the global fallout from the ongoing trade war between the United States and China. The MSCI EAFE posted a modest loss of 1.1% as gains from defensive sectors, such as utilities and consumer staples, offset losses from cyclical sectors such as energy and materials. Japanese equities recorded gains of 3.1%, while European stocks were 1.8% in the red; emerging market equities and China were harder hit, losing 4.2% and 4.7%, respectively.

Fixed Income Markets

In the late stage of the US economic cycle, investors are favoring higher-quality credit and safe-haven fixed-income assets. Long-only high yield and leveraged-loan funds continued to see net outflows, while investment-grade funds witnessed net inflows in the third quarter. US bond markets were in the black for the quarter with the Bloomberg Barclays Aggregate posting a gain of 2.3%, the Bank of America High Yield BB-B up 1.7%, and Credit Suisse Leveraged Loan Index gaining 0.9%. Issuance so far this year in the high-yield market has surpassed that of 2018, with nearly 50% of new issuance in BB-B rated bonds.
