

Are You Single?

For those who have never married issues may arise concerning your estate plans that are unique. You may have heirs that you could give your estate to, but questions come up as to the age of the heirs, what amount to give them, and how the inheritance will be used.

The LCMS Foundation has developed several special trusts that can be used in this type of estate planning. These trusts are used for single individuals to provide a stream of income payments to their heirs and also to provide a gift to ministries of their choice. Providing for family and ministry at the same time may sound too good to be true.

This information is provided to help you create a Lifetime Plan for Giving™ that provides for the people you love and ministries you care about.
